

WE MUST HAVE A FAIR EVERY YEAR
IS MERCHANTS' UNANIMOUS OPINION

A Wonderful Stimulant to Trade Say the Leading Businessmen.

WE COULD NOT AFFORD TO LOSE IT

Hundreds of La Crosse Businessmen Express the Same Opinion Regarding the Association and Its Benefit to La Crosse.

Talk of submitting to the stockholders of the Interstate Fair association the question of whether or not it is advisable to discontinue the fair, was started among the directors by the fact that the Leader-Press and the Morning Chronicle by negative methods attempted to injure the show.

It was felt that the game played was for the papers in question to pray for rain, and in the event of a poor attendance to say: "We didn't advertise the fair; and the fair failed. You see, anybody who don't kow-tow to us, is doomed."

But the weather was fine, and The Tribune alone having boosted it, and the crowds breaking all records, the two papers of the Light Trust made a rush for the band wagon. They didn't mention the fair during the weeks when "boost" it would have helped, but they gave it a little space after it was an assured success. However, The Tribune got all the credit for effective advertising.

It was suggested by the fair directors that a vote of the stockholders would, in case it demanded a continuance of the fair, be a fitting rebuke to these papers. Accordingly interviews were obtained by the fair association, and the result is the expression by La Crosse merchants of a unanimous wish for the continuance of the fair. Some of the interviews are as follows:

Wm. Doerflinger:
"Of course we should have a fair. By all means; start in right now to prepare for the fair next year. It is a fine 'ad' for the city as it brings in thousands of people from miles around. Perhaps we do not derive any immediate benefit but we are brought in touch with strangers and we cannot tell what it will mean later on."

"The Batavian National bank did a stupendous business fair week. We took in immense deposits, and few if any holiday weeks have shown a business activity equal to this fair week, as indicated by the deposits of merchants."

Gus Rose, Park Store Jewelry Dept.:
"The fair was a decided success a fine thing for La Crosse and it should be continued."

C. Evans Music & Stationery Co.:
"The fair is a fine thing. It attracts many people from the surrounding territory. I am in favor of its continuance."

C. J. Felber, Mgr. E. R. Barron Co.:
"Do you think the interstate fair just passed was a success a benefit to this city? Do you desire to see its continuance?"

"A success—yes. A great benefit to the city of course. As to its continuance I am in favor of it—decidedly so."

J. J. Poehling:
"The fair was a big success and of course any attraction that is an attraction of merit which will bring thousands of people to the city is a great benefit to the city. Certainly the fair is to be the annual attraction. It would be a most foolish move to try and do away with it."

I. G. Loomis:
"The fair is run on a successful basis. As I understand it, the directors do not ask for any support from the business men now. Nevertheless thousands come to the city whom we would not meet were it not for the fair. The fair is a fine thing and La Crosse business men will not hear of its discontinuance."

F. G. Dana:
"Of course we want a fair every year. Thousands of people are attracted by it who would not otherwise come. Any enterprise of merit that will attract so many people to a city is a direct benefit to that city. By all means quote me as being in favor of its continuance."

G. B. Livermore, Supt. Street Railway Co.:
"Why La Crosse must have an attraction that will draw outsiders to the city. I don't know of any attraction that will please the people so much as the interstate fair."

F. D. Bergh, Bergh Piano Co.:
"The interstate fair made it possible for us to take many outsiders through our establishment. The fair is a benefit to La Crosse and should be continued."

J. Kaufman, Mgr. Fay Lewis & Co.:
"Fair week was the busiest of the season for us. Quote me as being in favor of the fair and desiring its continuance."

H. N. Boehm Mgr. Continental Co.:
"Why the fair is a fine thing for La Crosse. Any one expressing himself against the fair is a knocker to La Crosse and the business wellfare."

Mr. Sterling Hotel Law:
"Every up-to-date city has a fair. The La Crosse fair is a great benefit to the city and should be continued."

Wm. Bronson:
"The fair was a decided success a fine thing for La Crosse and it should be continued."

J. J. Simpson, La Crosse Hotel:
"I certainly am in favor of having the directors continue the La Crosse interstate fair. Business here was unusually large as I have reason to believe it was at all the other hotels. A fair of this kind attracts many visitors to the city, and is certainly a great benefit."

Wm. Bachelder:
"We never had such a large out of town trade as we had fair week. Of course we want a fair every year."

John C. Burns:
Fred B. Smith, The Stoddard-Cameron House:
"The interstate fair is a good thing

J. S. AND W. W.
ARE IN WINTER QUARTERS

In speaking of the two excursion boats which are well known in La Crosse, the Davenport Democrat says:
The excursion steamboat W. W. has departed south and will go to the Keokuk canal locks to be laid up alongside the other steamer of the Acme Packet company, the J. S., for the winter season. The business of the smaller boat like that of the J. S. was profitable during the summer months that she ran on the upper river, thought there were more excursion boats and thus keener competition for trade this season than ever before. The business that it has had warrants the action of Capt. Streckfus in taking the Winona out of the Clinton-Rock Island packet trade and remodeling her for the excursion trade.

The boat brought an excursion from Muscatine under the auspices of the merchants as a means of bringing trade from the down river city. About 500 people took the trip as no counter attraction was offered by the Muscatine business men, as in a previous case when an excursion was run by Davenport people, to keep the people in their own town.

Capt. Streckfus last winter ran the J. S. on the lower part of the Mississippi river in the excursion business, but he cannot take that boat or the W. W. south now because of the prevalence of yellow fever there. He may decide to use them in the work later on in the winter months when cold weather has driven the disease off.

Andrew Cunningham and James Crane, the two youngest members of the trio arrested for the Stoddard postoffice robbery, are products of the saloon-made class of criminals who abound in certain sections of Chicago.

TRIPLE MURDER IS SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 7.—A triple murder was divulged today when the bodies of Willis and Fred Olney were found a half mile from the Olney home in which last night the body of Alice Ingerick was found. Another victim, Mrs. Georgia Ingerick, mother of Alice, was found unconscious on the Olney farm, with three fractures of the skull. She is expected to die at any moment.

Evidence Startling.
Willis, 62, and Fred, 58, had both been robbed. Their pockets were turned and watches and money were gone. The evidence indicates they were shot near their home and taken in a wagon to the edge of the timber and dragged for a quarter of a mile through the brush.

HE TERRORIZED HIS FAMILY WITH A KNIFE

Charged with pursuing his wife and babies about the house with a big butcher knife frequently, and one time chasing them out into the snow on a cold winter's night, Matt Schuler of 2225 Prospect street, was given a sixty-day sentence in the county jail for being a drunkard by Judge Brind-

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
TOLEDO, Oct. 7.—Application was made in court this morning by Ramsay asking the removal of the election inspectors for the Wabash appointed at the last annual election, declaring they are not qualified by education or experience to serve. He declares in the petition he is still president of the Wabash, despite the action of the directors in removing him.

He alleges certain stockholders are preparing to vote illegal and fraudulent proxies and asks for inspectors qualified to prevent them. It is reported Ramsay has secured the proxies of several blocks of stock held abroad.

THE JUDGE HITS
THE PIPE.

The story of Messrs. Herkin, Sokke, Simpson, et al. taking a snake trip down the Mississippi was one of those jokes that come to a newspaper from its friends. The learned judge who evolved it left on a hunting trip just in time to escape an experience that would make a barn seance with his father and a shingle look like a holiday. The gentlemen who were the objects of his outburst of humor do not appreciate his style of wit, and declare that the redtop in which he indulges must have been of an atrocious character to inspire so vivid a tale.

Strange Revolver Fight Between

Couple

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—After thirty-five years of married life Benton H. Hopkins and his wife, Jessie, aged 53, fought a duel with pistols this morning in the latter's home in Brooklyn. The woman was killed and Hopkins was shot in the left hand. The prisoner is at the Brooklyn hospital. The shooting was witnessed by Hopkins' sister, Mrs. Henrie Bruyn, of Walden, N. Y. The couple separated three months ago after a quarrel about the disposition of property held in common, amounting to about $50,000.

The husband appeared in the house this morning and the quarrel followed. Hopkins who is 53, is a steel engraver. Hopkins hardly approached the house when his wife drew a small revolver from her bosom and fired over Mrs. Bruyn's shoulder. Before she could fire again Hopkins brushed his sister aside, grasped his wife's gun with his bleeding hand, drew a large pistol and fired three times. The first two bullets made fatal wounds and the third passed over her head as she sank to the floor. The couple have a son, Henry L., a business man.

"PATHS" AND "PRACTICES" IN COURT

COMPETITION SAID TO BACK SUIT

Charged with an infraction of the state medical laws, Dr. Johnson, of the firm of Johnson & Whipple, "Chiropractors," will stand trial next Wednesday. Miller & Wolfe appear for the defendant.

some under any of the prescribed forms of treatment denominated "schools."

On the other hand, evidence will be introduced for the purpose of showing that chiropractic is a definite and distinct treatment scientifically developed, being taught in schools throughout the country, and that its practitioners are entitled to the same rights and privileges as those of other schools of medicine.

Dr. Jorris, of the state board of medical examiners, is the complainant. He is an osteopath, and he will be at disadvantage in court because chiropractic is a school of practice that comes into direct competition with osteopathy. The osteopaths themselves had this same struggle to obtain recognition, and the case has been likened to the pilgrims who left England to escape religious persecution, and who immediately set up in the New England colonies a system of religious persecution that made that which had driven them from the old country tame in comparison.

Chiropractic was discovered by Dr. D. D. Palmer, of Davenport, Ia. There is a large school in that city, and other schools have been established throughout the country. A journal known as "The Chiropractor," is published to give publicity and support to the school, which has grown with considerable strides of late.

It is said that Chiropractic differs from osteopathy in that every form of ailment is reached direct through the nervous organization by treating the spinal column; local ailments are not treated locally; the spinal column is the great nerve center, the nerve feed store, and if it is kept right, other portions of the body must of necessity be right also.

Dr. Johnson is an attractive man, and in his short stay in La Crosse has made many friends. He appears to be well up in his profession, and has been employed by rich as well as poor. He does not hesitate to express the opinion that he will be acquitted, and intimates that professional jealousy has had much to do with the attack upon him.

Bay State for Revision

Boston, Oct. 7.—With only one voice raised in opposition the Republicans of Massachusetts in state convention declared for a revision of the tariff. The following ticket was nominated: For governor, Curtis Guild, Jr., Boston; lieutenant governor, Eben S. Draper, Hopedale; secretary of state, William M. Olin, Boston; treasurer and receiver general, Arthur B. Chapin, Holyoke; auditor, Henry E. Turner, Malden; attorney general, Dana Malone, Greenfield.

The platform contained an indorsement of the administration of President Roosevelt, especial mention being made of his part in bringing about peace between Russia and Japan and of his enforcement of the laws preventing corporations from oppressing the people; a recommendation for the enactment by congress of a tariff provision which shall give the United States the "open door" and most favored nation treatment everywhere.

The tariff plank reaffirms devotion to the principle of protection, and opposes any change "tending to depress or destroy any of our industries" or lower wages; but rates should be changed when conditions change so that public interest demands alteration of the schedules; the whole Republican party, however, must determine the time for revision; "we urge * * * the wisdom of a consideration of the tariff for the purpose of revision and readjustment."

Future Looks Very Rosy

New York, Oct. 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Favorable trade reports still predominate, and there is no anxiety regarding the future. Higher temperature checked retail distribution of heavy wearing apparel and other reasonable merchandise, but preparations for an unprecedented fall and winter trade continue without diminution. Superlatives are needed in commenting on real estate transactions, building permits, bank exchanges and railway earnings, and failure statistics for the third quarter show a very low commercial death rate.

Quarterly records back to 1875 disclose no three-month period when the ratio of liabilities to solvent payments through the clearing houses was lower than the 42 cents to $1,000 just recorded, while the average loss to each firm in business of $15.26 was less than in any year except 1881.

Commercial failures this week in the United States are 195, against 240 last week, 206 the preceding week, and 222 the corresponding week last year. Failures in Canada number 22, against 21 last week, 34 the preceding week and 25 last year.

25 Men are Prisoners

Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 7.—A defective electrical generator started a destructive fire at the Fremont coal mine near Florence, Colo. All the buildings, including the shaft house, were destroyed. Thirty-five men were working in the mine at the time the fire started. Ten of them were rescued with difficulty, and twenty-five are still in the mine at this writing.

By some good fortune the air compressor was not damaged by the flames, and it is confidently expected the entombed men will be taken out alive. It is not known whether the mine itself is on fire, nor is it stated that the fire is under control. No estimate of the financial loss can be made now.

DON'T NEGLECT A COLD. Neglected Colds Lead to Consumption.

PER-UNA CURES COLDS AND COUGHS.

How Pretty Miss Powell Was Restored to Health by Pe-ru-na.

Miss Lillian Powell, Aurora, Ind., writes:
"Last spring I caught a severe cold from getting my feet wet and being out in the rain, and in a day I had a most miserable cold, but I neglected it, thinking it would soon leave me. But it hung to me for two weeks, when I felt something must be done, as my condition was serious.
"I had heard so much about Peruna and in its praise that I bought a bottle and began taking it regularly. I was gratified to find that in a week the cold and cough was broken up, and three weeks' treatment completely restored my usual good health."—Lillian Powell.

ANOTHER RAP.

J. F. Schrank had a timely article in the La Crosse Leader-Press and the Chronicle calling down the shortsightedness of certain La Crosse restaurant men in raising their prices during fair week. Bangor people who were held up by men whom they have been accustomed to patronize when there is no fair in La Crosse will go elsewhere to dine when they go to the city in the future.—Bangor Independent.

The most tiresome, disappointing shopping tour you have made in a long time was the one at the end of that week when you "had no time to read the store-advertisements."

How Consumption Develops.

Nine cases of consumption out of ten occur in this way:

A person catches cold. The cold is not properly cured, and another cold is caught.

This cold is dilly-dallied with, either by no treatment whatever or some treatment that is ineffectual, and the cold continues.

Then another cold is caught and a cough develops. Cough syrups are resorted to, but they give only temporary relief.

By and by the patient gets tired of taking medicines and cough syrups and gives up in despair.

The cold continues to develop and the cough grows worse.

Then the doctor is called in, only to discover that the patient is in the first stages of consumption.

It was just in this way that Miss Powell, of Aurora, Ind., became sick. She caught a cold, and not considering it serious, neglected it, thinking as many others do, that it would "wear off."

However, it clung to her tenaciously, and in two weeks she found her health in a serious condition.

Fortunately, Peruna had been brought to her notice, and she took a course of this remedy before it was too late.

In a week the cough and cold were broken, and a three weeks' treatment completely restored her to health.

This is what Peruna is doing all the while. Not a day, and probably not an hour passes in which some one does not have a similar experience with Peruna.

Cure the Slight Colds and Avoid Consumption.

The first step toward consumption is a cold. The next step is a failure to cure it promptly. The third step is the development of catarrh, which gradually becomes chronic. The fourth step, the catarrh begins to spread from the head to the throat, then to the bronchial tubes, and finally into the lungs. It is then consumption in the first stage.

At any time during the progress of catarrh, from the first onset of the cold to its final settlement in the lungs, Peruna can be relied upon to stop the disease. If you have taken a cold, buy Peruna without delay. One bottle in the beginning will do more good than a half dozen bottles after the catarrh has fastened itself on the lungs.

Thousands of Testimonials.

We have on file thousands of testimonials from people who have been cured of catarrh of the lungs by Peruna. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

Just as it costs no more for a long trip on an up-to-date trolley car now than it used to for a short one on a horse car, so the modern store, which spends money for advertising, can sell goods more cheaply than the old-fashioned store which "saves the expense of advertising."

Don't buy a stove until you have read the stove-ads. You might go to the right place—but it would be luck.

STAGE AMUSEMENTS

ROYAL SLAVE TOMORROW NIGHT

Whilst "A Royal Slave" is a play that appeals at once to the intelligence and the heart of an auditor, his eye has not been forgotten. The scenes are all painted from photographs taken in and near the city of Mexico, especially for this production. Among the most striking scenes is a view of the valley of Mexico as seen from the gardens of the hacienda de Oro, near Chapultepec. It shows a distant view of the city of Mexico, and the lake of the "Floating Gardens," and in the far distance, "through ninety miles of purple leagues," the giant volcano of Popocatepetl; the whole picture framed in by groves of palms and bowers of bloom and seen through the sprays of a real fountain playing on the stage. Of special interest also are the scenes showing the church of Peons; the two scenes in the Sierra Madre mountains, the Paso del Rey (pass of the king) and the cave of the bandits in the heart of the mountains; the splendid moonlit scene of the tropical coast of the Island of El Toro (the

SOCIETY

The continued fine weather has added an impetus to country outings. There have been many country rides and picnics during the week. Pettibone park is one of the popular places and every day finds many parties encamped on its beautiful grounds with their baskets of tempting lunch spread before them.

The state convention of the W. C. T. U. which was held here during the week was one of great interest and brought many prominent and interesting speakers to the city.

The most important social functions were the teas given by Mrs. F. A. Bigelow and Mrs. W. L. Keating. The ever popular and irresistible Frank Daniels gave a delightful entertainment at the theatre Wednesday to a large audience. The coming week Charles Frohman's company will appear in "Mrs. Tellingwell's Boots." This play has just concluded a long run in New York and said to be intensely funny and as this is the class of entertainments that take with the general public a full house is assured.

Mrs. H. J. McDonald and Mrs. Calvin Baker have issued invitations for a card party on Tuesday also a tea the day following.

The cooking class of Mrs. Nellie Dilling Gans is growing in popularity with the good house wife who is ever on the alert to secure and adopt the latest and best methods in culinary art.

TEAS AND DINNERS.

Mrs. W. L. Keating was hostess at two pretty teas during the week. One hundred and thirty invitations were issued which were very generally accepted. The rooms were bay and bright with gorgeous autumn flowers and foliage. Garlands and festoons of bitter sweet with clusters of scarlet berries mingling with the bright autumn tints, and wild clematis with its feathery white blossoms were twined around chandeliers and over archways. The color scheme of the parlor was pink, that of the library yellow and the dining room red. Large vases filled with flowers corresponding with the color scheme were arranged in the different rooms. The decorations were the work of Mesdames Hoban, Cowles and Kingsley whose good taste in the arrangement received many compliments.

The assisting ladies upon the first day were Mesdames Hoban, Cowles, Green, Spicer and Newcomb. The following day Mrs. Walter Kingsley, Mrs. W. A. Powell and Miss Maud Pettigill assisted. Miss Edna Shirley attended the door. The place cards were novel and artistic, being the work of Miss Florence Keating, daughter of the hostess. They were done in pen and ink each one being different and showing great artistic talent. Of course they attracted much favorable comment, each one going the rounds of the guests.

Among the guests from out of the city were Mrs. Powers of Black River Falls, Mrs. S. I. McKee of West Salem, Mrs. Wolcott and Mrs. Hoban of St. Paul, Mrs. Aiken of Chicago, and Miss Masterbrook of Winona.

Wednesday evening Mrs. B. C. Smith entertained at dinner. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. George Powell, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Reitzel, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gleason and Mrs. Fred Aiken of Chicago.

Postoffice Inspector F. P. Maher entertained a party of ten at dinner at the Hotel Stoddard Thursday. Those present were the Misses Sabina Warrens of Madison, Mabel Slightum of Madison, Jennie Goddard of Chippewa Falls, Wis., and Harriet Fraser, Jessie Bigelow and Effie Fraser of La Crosse, Assistant United States Attorney Harry Morgan of Madison, Wis., Arthur Maggeth of Madison and Mr. Hutson of Edgerton, Wis.

Friday evening Miss Antoinette McMillan entertained at a dinner of eight covers in honor of Miss Rising of Winona.

A reception is tendered the Presbyterian synod and Women's Missionary society meeting here by friends of the Y. W. C. A. in their new home, Fourth and Cass street, Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

LUNCHEON.

The federal officials who were here attending United States court were entertained at the home of Postoffice Inspector E. E. Fraser Wednesday evening at a Dutch luncheon. Those present were U. S. Attorney W. G. Wheeler, Asst. U. S. Attorney Harry Morgan, U. S. Marshal Charles Lewiston, Deputy United States Marshals Fred French and W. P. Pugh. Postoffice Inspector F. P. Maher, Miss S. Warren of Madison and Miss Jessie Bigelow of La Crosse.

The Ladies' Society of the First Presbyterian church was entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. S. Cargill. The hostesses were Mrs. Cargill and Mrs. Ed. Dow. Refreshments were served and a successful social occasion was enjoyed. This was the first meeting of the new society under its new president, Mrs. F. C. Suiter.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Birdie Price of Black River Falls who was a guest of Miss Lillie Elmore, also of Mrs. Levi Withee, gave a very novel and interesting entertainment one evening during her stay at the home of Senator Withee. She appeared in a full Winnebago Indian chieftain suit and gave a representation of one of their native dances. The suit that she wore was a very handsome and expensive one heavily embroidered with beads and other ornaments. With it she wore a war bonnet in which were thirty plumes each being worth a dollar apiece. Over her shoulder was slung a game bag and she carried a copper hatchet which had seen actual and deadly service. Miss Elmore accompanied her on the piano, playing the Wigwam Dance. The dance and costume should be seen to fully be appreciated. Miss Price has one of the most valuable collections of Indian relics and curiosities which she has gathered at great expense. They consist of wearing apparel, war weapons, medicine bags, bead and work shell ornaments. Among the most valuable articles is a drum which has a history and a couple of medicine bags. It is seldom that a white person is able to procure one of the latter as the Indians are not allowed to dispose of them, but occasionally a "bad Indian" will be found who is not able to refuse the offer of a good round sum of the "great father's" money. After this entertainment Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kerr gave several vocal and instrumental numbers which added to the variety of the evening. Among those present were Mrs. Elsie Gile Scott, Mrs. John Paul of Watertown, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elmore, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, Miss Jennie Smith, Miss Elmore, Messrs. Abner Withee and Argyle Scott.

TEAS AND COFFEES.

Mrs. F. A. Bigelow of South Sixth street was hostess at a delightful tea Tuesday afternoon given in honor of her guest, Mrs. Gerber of Minneapolis. A number of other strangers were also present adding to the pleasure of the occasion. The rooms were tastefully decorated with handsome dahlias in various colors and American beauty roses.

Those who served were Mesdames Allie Woolsey, Will Powell, Nellie Woolsey, A. F. Reitzel, Eugene Gleason, H. Palmer and Miss Jessie Bigelow.

Little Miss Jessie Powers ushered the guests in a graceful manner.

The invited guests were:

Mesdames Sawyer, Austin, Bailey, James Thomason, Alfred Harrison, Lefe Holmes, S. B. Oatman, Walter Bigelow, Slothower, Hyslop, George Powell, Nellie Woolsey, N. P. Lee, W. K. Shepard, John Palmer, H. Palmer, Waite, Max Platz, Albert Platz, Ambrose, A. F. Reitzel, Getts, Will Powell, E. J. Evans, J. S. Lowe, W. A. Pryor, Vought, T. P. Benton, Frank Smith, Fred A. Smith, J. Out of town guests were: Mrs. Mary Lee of Milwaukee, Mrs. Powers of Milwaukee, Mrs. Fred Aiken of Chicago, Mrs. Louise Topp of Winona and Miss Helen Robinson of Winona.

OUTINGS.

Wednesday a party of ladies consisting of Mrs. L. Foster, Mrs. W. R. Finch, the Misses Gertrude and Lucy Hogan, Anna Goodland and Sophie Holbeck drove to Hokah where they spent the day.

Friday afternoon a party of ladies drove over into Minnesota. During the drive the time was mostly consumed in discussing where they should locate and the proper way to reach the objective point, no one in the party seeming to have a very distinct recollection of the route. The road was dusty and full of ruts with an occasional mudhole but the trusty and patient driver finally took affairs into his own hands and landed them in a pretty grove beside Root River where lunch was soon spread, after which the party resumed the homeward ride, having spent a pleasant afternoon. In the party were Mesdames G. G. Brownell, W. H. Robbins, Charles Elmore, J. L. Pettigill, Amelia Ryder, S. H. Russell, Charles Noble, A. E. Gatterdam and Miss Alice Wheeler.

TEACHERS GO TO SPARTA

Speaking of the annual teachers' meeting at Sparta which will bring 500 teachers into that city, the Monroe County Democrat says:

"Sparta is fortunate in securing the second annual meeting of the Western Wisconsin Teachers' association. Aside from the intellectual impetus that will be given to the city by the gathering, this municipality will gain much in reputation by having the teachers in our midst. The assembling of five or six hundred cultured strangers in Sparta from various parts of the state cannot fail to have its effect upon a community already noted for its educational facilities.

"The meetings themselves will be of incalculable benefit not only to the members of the association but to all who choose to attend. Prominent educators of state-wide reputation will be present. Topics will be presented and discussed. The intellectual impetus given will be far reaching in its results. The knowledge assimilated at the great gathering will be scattered far and wide.

"The president of the Western Wisconsin Teachers' association is Frank M. Jack supervising principal of the Sparta schools. It was due almost entirely to his efforts that the association was organized, and the meeting to be held in this city October 26, 27 and 28 will be realization of a long cherished dream."

In this connection it might be added that La Crosse lost this important meeting of educators through failure to take any part in the organization of the association and the planning of the convention.

FOOD AGAIN.

A Mighty Important Subject to Everyone.

A Boston lady talks entertainingly of food and the changes that can be made in health by some knowledge on that line. She says:

"An injury to my spine in early womanhood left me subject to severe sick headaches which would last three or four days at a time, and a violent course of drugging at the hands of old-fashioned physicians brought on constipation with all the ills that follow.

"My appetite was always light and uncertain and many kinds of food distressed me.

"I began to eat Grape-Nuts food two or three years ago, because I liked the taste of it, and I kept on because I soon found it was doing me good.

"I eat it always at breakfast, frequently at luncheon, and again before going to bed—and have no trouble in 'sleeping on it.' It has cured my constipation, my headaches have practically ceased, and I am in better physical condition at the age of 63 than I was at 40.

"I give Grape-Nuts credit for restoring my health, if not saving my life, and you can make no claim for it too strong for me to endorse." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

state convention held at Appleton.

One of the most important matters considered by the convention was taking into the Baptist church 2,500 Free Will Baptists of the state who ask for admittance. The proposition is being favorably considered. The convention decided to hold a summer assembly next year at Madison.

While at the convention officers of the Young Peoples' association of the Baptist church of La Crosse decided to hold a rally here December 10 to 12.

Rev. Hoag was chosen to deliver the annual sermon at the next convention which will be held at Evansville.

This morning a crew of searchers sent out by the Milwaukee railroad failed to find the body of a man hit by the fast mail at 11 o'clock last night as the train crossed the La Crosse river, trestle near the elevators, between the north and south sides. As the train pulled out from the south side last night and as crossing the trestle the engineer and members of the train crew saw a man was crossing the bridge struck and thrown into the air by the locomotive. His body cannot be found, and it is believed by the railroad authorities that the body was tossed into the river and carried away.

THE EXPERIENCE OF ONE OF OUR CITIZENS

That the thorough scholar who has mastered the science of medicine and surgery establishes his reputation for marvelous skills and ability to successfully treat and cure chronic diseases, by the testimonial from grateful patients who have been afforded relief and cure through his treatment, is proved in the case of Dr. L. M. Turbin, the specialist of Chicago, in whom the people of this community have the utmost confidence.

An example of the high regard our friends have for Dr. Turbin's skill is found in the following letter. Mr. Henry Koehn of Black Creek, Wis., says:

"For years I was a nervous wreck, broken down from overwork, had chronic stomach trouble, and no doctor I consulted seemed to help me much. Life was a burden to me, and I had about given up hope of ever being well again, when a friend who had been benefited by Dr. Turbin's treatment persuaded me to consult him. After a month's treatment, I felt much better, the nervous headaches, dull pains in stomach, and nausea not being so severe and from that on I improved rapidly, until I am now entirely free from pain and well in every way. I am glad to testify to Dr. Turbin's ability to cure chronic cases like mine, and wish those who suffer as I did, would consult him."

Dr. Turbin will visit La Crosse, Monday, Oct. 9th, at the Hotel La Crosse.

QUININE

Everybody knows Quinine to be the acknowledged specific for fever and ague. Its natural antidote for same, no substitute known. The recent discovery of Gray's Yerba Santa is of equal importance to mankind, for its an absolutely certain specific for the cure of all kinds of cough. Nothing equal to it known. It stops the tickle that makes you cough, and no cough lives where Gray's Yerba Santa is used.

Cut the Fuel Bill in Half

IN an ordinary coal stove, half of the coal arises in gas and quickly goes up the chimney. When you remember that gas is itself fine fuel, being used in all the large cities for cooking, heating and lighting, you realize how much is saved if the gas doesn't escape, but is held in the stove and burned.

Notice in this picture of Cole's Hot Blast how the draft burns the gas. It discharges a blast of highly heated air over and through the body, of fuel, thus distilling the gas from the fuel, oxydizing and burning it before its escape up the chimney. That is why

Cole's Original Hot Blast Saves Half the Fuel

This patented Hot Blast Draft doesn't work in leaky stoves and that is one reason why imitations are failures.

This wonderful stove burns anything—hard coal, soft coal, wood, cobs, combustible rubbish, garbage—anything.

PROOF

That the Pacific Electric Company Uses the Best of Materials.

Several articles have appeared recently in the local newspapers to the effect that competition has forced the electrical contractors of this city into using cheap and unsafe material in filling their contracts. It is the case, we know nothing of it and feel that in justice to ourselves and our customers such charges should not go unnoticed by us. In order to convince the public that we have never employed such methods in conducting our business, we took the pains to write a circular letter to each of the supply houses from whom we have purchased goods in the past and asked them to inform us as to the grade of the supplies which we have purchased from them. We print below a copy of our letter and a few of the replies which we received and trust that they will convince you that we have always been honest with our customers. Copy of Circular letter sent to supply dealers by us:

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 5, 1905.

Gentlemen:

Owing to the fact that there is a fight now going on for an electrical inspector in this city, the local newspapers are publishing sensational articles charging that the electricians of this city are taking advantage of the absence of an inspector to use the cheapest material which can be obtained. As we have purchased quite a quantity of supplies from you in the last few years, we ask that you will kindly examine your records in order to ascertain the grade of material which we have been using. If you will then kindly write us a short letter informing us of what you find as to the grade of material we have used and if same is according to Underwriters' requirements or not, we will be deeply indebted to you for your courtesy. A prompt answer to the above will be greatly appreciated by us. Are,

TAX ON PATENT MEDICINES

Revenue Collector Kemper has received a copy of the order issued by the revenue department regarding the placing of stamps on certain brands of patent medicine which contain intoxicating liquor. After December 1, 1905, all dealers in medicines containing alcoholic liquors must hold a special stamp tax. This order will materially increase the revenue at the local office.

The commissioner of internal revenue states that it has been ascertained that among the various alcoholic compounds now on the market, advertised and sold as medicine under the name of whiskey, bitters, tonic, cordials, etc., there are some that are composed chiefly of distilled spirits, or mixtures thereof, without the addition of drugs or medicinal ingredients in sufficient quantities to change materially the character of the alcoholic liquor. Collectors have accordingly been advised to notify the druggists and merchants dealing in patent medicines in their district that they will have to hold the requisite special tax stamp in order to sell these alcoholic compounds after Dec. 1, 1905.

The date is set far ahead so that no injustice may be done to those druggists who now have these compounds on hand and are holding them in stock for sale as medicines. After Dec. 1, however, even if these same druggists sell these compounds in good faith for medicinal use only, never selling them as beverages, nor selling them knowingly to those buying them for use as beverages, they will be required to possess the necessary stamp.

WEEK OF SENSATIONS IN LIFE INSURANCE

New York, Oct. 7.—Closing a week every day of which has produced a sensation that has stirred the country the special legislative committee investigating the methods of insurance companies has adjourned until Tuesday of next week, the sessions to be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, instead of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, as heretofore. This change was made because Friday is registration day in this state and members of the committee desired to be present in their various districts. While other weeks of the hearing have had sensations, no previous week has had a sensation every day as the one that was concluded with yesterday's session.

Salaries of the Officials.

In yesterday's testimony the sensational development was when Hughes demanded the pay roll of the executive officers of the company. This was produced and showed the salaries of these officers since 1877. For the year 1904 President McCurdy received $150,000, two vice presidents were paid $50,000 each, a second vice president $17,500, the third vice president $10,000, and the general manager $25,000, who this year will receive $30,000, and the treasurer $50,000. The witness on the stand was Robert H. McCurdy, general manager of the Mutual Life Insurance company, and son of Richard A. McCurdy, president of that company.

Value of Large Salaries.

McCurdy said he never knew the salary of his father until yesterday when he heard it read in the committee room. When asked if it was any benefit to the policyholder to increase the president's salary McCurdy said he thought the trustees had considered that when they increased the president's salary. No increase, however, had ever been considered when he was present at the trustees' meetings.

Hughes tried to bring out why C. H. Raymond & Co. and the partners in that firm received larger emoluments from the business than any other agency.

Not in Business for Their Health.

McCurdy said he did not know what Thebaud received from the business, and had never talked with him about his personal affairs. He said it was a "large reward for large achievements," and that all businesses of large magnitude were built up on that principle. Asked to explain what conditions of competition permitted the firm of Raymond & Co. to make $247,000 last year of which Thebaud received $147,000 witness said the company did not know what the firm was making out of the business and that, like every merchant and business man, they were in the business for what they could get out of it.

SOME CASES OF "NEPOTISM"

Nice Jobs That Seem to Have Been Affairs of the Family.

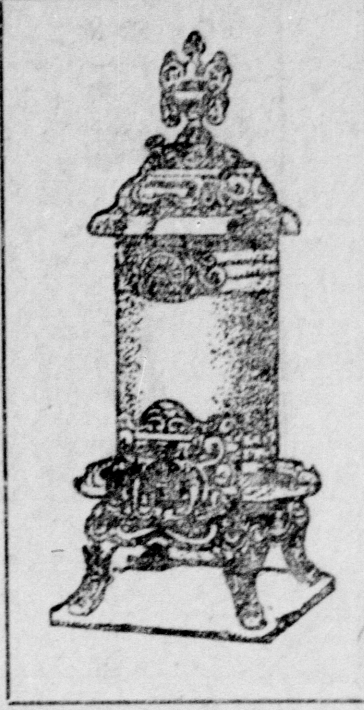

During McCurdy's testimony it was brought out that George Raymond, a brother of Charles H. Raymond, was the general agent for New Jersey; that Howard Lewis, the general agent for northern New York, with an office in Albany, was a cousin of either the vice president, Granniss, or Mrs. Granniss; that Dr. E. J. Moss, the medical director of the Mutual Life, married a

200 INDICTMENTS AGAINST PEORIA SCHOOL TEACHER

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 7.—Two hundred indictments are returned or in the making against Newton C. Dougherty, city superintendent of schools and president of the Peoria National bank. Thirteen of the list have already been served, requiring a total bail of $12,700. Ten of these are for embezzlement and three for forgery. Forty more are preparing in the state's attorney's office. According to a statement made by a member of the grand jury, hundreds of pieces of school scrip, alleged to have been changed after being signed by the president of the school board, are missing.

Will Go Back for Twenty Years.

A committee appointed by the school board to continue the investigation after the grand jury gets through announced through its chairman, Mr. John Stevens, that they would go back over the books of the board for twenty years. In some cases, but stubs and vouchers are missing, representing, according to the cash book, large amounts. Erwin J. Schnebly, discount and exchange clerk at the Peoria National bank, the man who first discovered irregularities in Dougherty's method of handling school funds, has made a statement. He said:

He Notices Queer Methods.

"I took charge of the individual books at the bank seven years ago and shortly thereafter I began to notice the queer methods Mr. Dougherty had of handling the funds of the Peoria school board. He would make checks payable to various local firms and give his personal check for a smaller amount. I called the attention of the bank officials to this state of affairs, and was informed that it was none of my business. I was then transferred to the discount and exchange department. Dougherty's dealings were carried on as follows:

How the Professor Operated.

"He would bring in checks for large amounts, payable in most instances to a school furniture firm in Chicago or a plumbing firm in St. Louis. With these checks he would purchase New York, Chicago or St. Louis exchange, made payable to his own order. Upon examination of the indorsements on the drafts I found that in many instances they had been used in his private business affairs. In some cases he would indorse the names of local firms on the drafts, without their knowledge, putting his own initials under the signature."

Still He Pleads Not Guilty.

Steadfastly maintaining that he is guilty only of defective bookkeeping, Dougherty declares he will remain in Peoria, prove his innocence, make every shortage good and bear all the responsibility of straightening out the affairs of the school board. His shortage is declared to amount to $200,000.

Uncle Sam to Fight St. Louis Companies in Court

Washington, Oct. 7.—Several important questions were discussed at the cabinet meeting, although at the conclusion of the session it was announced officially that no details of the discussion could be made public. In fact it was announced that hereafter no information would be given out by cabinet officers of their semi-weekly meetings with the president, but that such information as it was deemed proper for the public to have would be given to the newspaper men by Secretary Loeb. Loeb stated that nothing could be made public regarding this meeting, although the cabinet was in session two hours and a half.

Still There Is a "Leak."

Despite the injunction of secrecy placed on the cabinet officers it is learned that action was taken on two or three important matters and that others were considered. The monopoly enjoyed by the Merchants' Bridge company, of St. Louis, of bridge and ferry routes across the Mississippi river was considered at length. Complaint was made against the Merchants' company about a year ago that it was charging exorbitant rates for carriage across the river, and the complaint was made the subject of an exhaustive investigation by Secretary Taft. The charter under which the company operates provides that it shall not form a combination with any other bridge or ferry company on penalty of forfeiture of its bridge to the United States government.

"Appropriate" Action Is Ordered.

Secretary Taft in his report on the inquiry suggested that the matter be handled by the department of justice. After considering the subject the cabinet decided that Attorney General Moody should begin "appropriate" action against the bridge company. The attorney general made the following official statement of the action taken: "It was determined by the president that upon the complaint pending in the department of justice against the monopolization of the two bridges and the ferry across the Mississippi into St. Louis, appropriate action should be begun by the attorney general."

Suit Under the Sherman Act Likely.

Moody said he could not say at this time what action he might consider "appropriate." He did not know, he said, whether the action would look to the forfeiture of the charter of the Merchants' Bridge company or not, as he would have to go over the law bearing upon the matter before reaching any determination. The congressional charters for the bridges provided for their forfeiture in case of a monopoly. Secretary Taft found that the violation of the law had not been sufficient to work a forfeiture, but suggested procedure, first, by bringing a mandamus against himself as secretary of war in case any person felt aggrieved at his refusal to declare a forfeiture; or, second, a suit under the anti-trust law. It is expected that Attorney General Moody will proceed under the Sherman act.

Labor in the Conference

Freeport, Ill., Oct. 7.—Labor matters threaten to cause difficulty before the Rock River conference as the result of the stand in favor of the open shop taken by Rev. H. C. Jennings, publishing agent of the Western Methodist Book Concern. E. R. Wright, president of the Chicago Typographical union, has come to Freeport with the intention of arguing the matter with Dr. Jennings. A strong effort probably will be made to prevent a debate on the floor of the conference as there are many differing opinions on the labor subject.

Wright will appear before the committee on labor and capital and its recommendation probably will be in advocacy of peace. An agitation to criticize Dr. Jennings for declaring in favor of the open shop as the result of the strike in the Chicago Book Concern hardly can lead to action, as the publishing agent is elected by the general conference, is left free to administer the book concern to the best advantage according to his own judgment and need not answer to any annual conference. He did not avow or try to adopt the open shop before the strike of printers.

The conference took a radical departure when it was decided that hereafter all trustees of educational institutions within the bounds of the conference shall be elected by ballot, instead of acting on the recommendation of members of the educational committee of conference.

Japs Capture Transport

Tokio, Oct. 7.—The navy department announces that the Russian transport Angan was overhauled near Cape Siretoko, but was released on showing a pass from Captain Shimaura, chief of staff of the standing squadron. It also was shown that the Angan had no contraband aboard. The sessions of the Associated Chambers of Commerce were closed after the delegates adopted resolutions to memorialize the government on numerous points calculated to advance and develop national trade, industry and finance. The following are the most prominent features:

The creation of government commercial agents; the establishment of floating exhibitions of samples and museums in foreign ports; a customs tariff union between Korea and Japan; the opening of a universal exposition; the improvement of existing railroads and the rapid construction of new railroads; retrenchment in the expenses of the administration; the establishment of a Japanese-Chinese bank; the adoption of measure against the expansion of the currency also is urged.

He Will Never Come Back

New York, Oct. 7.—Word has come from Munich that Dudley Buck, the famous organist and composer, never will return to this country to reside, but has declared his intention of passing the remainder of his life in Europe. No reason is given for Buck's determination to expatriate himself. He is Yankee born and bred, and his great musical triumphs were won in the country of his birth, though he obtained full recognition abroad.

When Dudley Buck was a young man he went to Chicago as the organist of St. James' Episcopal church. While in that city he completed several musical compositions. In the great fire of 1871 they were destroyed, and in view of the fame of Buck's later work the loss was a severe one to the musical world.
